

PART III—Section 2

NOTIFICATIONS BY THE HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Notification R. Dis. No. 17 of 40-41, dated 28th January 1941.

Under Section 130 of the Code of Civil Procedure and with the previous sanction of the Government, the High Court hereby orders that the following instructions be followed regarding the cases to be entered in Register No. III (Civil), Register of Miscellaneous Cases, and that they be substituted for the instructions printed on pages 11 and 12 of Volume II, Civil Rules of Practice and Circular Orders (1936):—

All miscellaneous (judicial) cases, which require a judicial inquiry or order, but for which no separate register is prescribed, should be entered in this register. The following list shows the cases which are to be entered in this register:—

1. Cases in which a plaint or memorandum of appeal is rejected before registration in the Register of Civil Suits or in the Register of Appeals, as the case may be;

2. Applications under Section 22 or 24, Code of Civil Procedure, to transfer suits, appeals, or other proceedings pending in a subordinate Court;

3. Applications under Order IX, Rule 4, 9 or 13; Order XXII, Rule 9, Order XXV, Rule 2, or Order XLI, Rule 19 or 21, Code of Civil Procedure, for the restoration to file of a suit or appeal dismissed on default or decreed ex parte;

4. Proceedings under Order XVI, Rule 12 or 17, Code of Civil Procedure;

5. Cases under Section 47, Code of Civil Procedure, i.e., all applications other than applications for the execution of a decree, which arise between the parties and relate to the execution, discharge, or satisfaction of a decree;

[Note.—(1) Applications for the ascertainment of mesne profits should not be registered as miscellaneous cases but should be regarded as applications made in the course of the trial of the suit—Vide Order XX, Rule 12, Code of Civil Procedure.

(2) Applications by decree-holders or by judgment-debtors reporting satisfaction must be numbered as miscellaneous cases].

6. Inquiries under Order XXI, Rule 2, Code of Civil Procedure, in regard to payments or adjustments alleged to have been made;

7. Claims and objections to the attachment of property under Order XXI, Rule 58, Code of Civil Procedure, and claims to property attached before judgment under Order XXXVIII, Rule 8, Code of Civil Procedure;

[Note.—Applications under Order XXI, Rule 89, 90 or 91, Code of Civil Procedure, to set aside a sale in execution of a decree are to be treated as parts of the execution cases and not entered as separate miscellaneous cases].
